

“Wine is bottled poetry”

Robert Louis Stevenson

We are now in our 12th year and we couldn't be more proud of the restaurant we have created and the awards we have received during this period. Being featured in the Sunday Times' top 100 restaurants was an absolute highlight, winning an award for our wine list from the Scottish Licensing Trade, the award was based on how the wine list is put together, the differing grape varieties, pricing, staff training and most of all a love of wine! We were absolutely delighted and very proud! We have also received the honour of winning the Food and Travel reader awards of the Best Restaurant in the UK outside of London and for the last two years we have been finalists in this prestigious category!.

We are extremely proud to still be listing our own personal Rioja Reserva from the Altanza winery in Rioja. We have just taken stock of our eighth barrel of Rioja, a 2011 vintage which is just lovely. We initially met the wine producers of Lealtanza in 2009 on a trip to Spain, with a mutual respect and a love for their wine we brought home our first barrel of wine for the restaurant. We have also organised another barrel of white Burgundy, this is due to be bottled in early 2019 and we can't wait to receive it!

During our annual January break we spoke with one of our wine companies who called to say he had a very exciting wine from India! Chenin blanc blended with fermented mango juice. The wine is called Alphonso after the mango used within the wine. After tasting we knew we needed to list it immediately, exciting and different, everything we hope to find for our guests. This wine also makes a fabulous cocktail! Please see our specials wine list for more information.

Our passion for wine is driven by our desire to travel and over the last few years we have been to some wonderful wine producing regions and countries, this has enabled us to meet some truly passionate producers.

Whenever we taste a new wine for the list, we always try and match it to one of the current dishes on the a la carte menu; a pairing between food and wine can make the whole dining experience that little bit more perfect. We have an extensive a la carte menu but for all those who can't decide, we have introduced a fabulous tasting menu, each course has been matched with an exciting wine and it's a great excuse to try some different!

If you need any guidance in selecting a bottle of wine to complement your meal, please just let one of the team know and we will do our utmost to help you.

Enjoy your meal with us. Slàinte

CLUB ALTANZA

Club Altanza

Wine is an integral part of the whole dining experience at Wedgwood the Restaurant and something we are extremely passionate about. When we came across Bodega Altanza whilst in Spain in 2009 we felt there was a strong synergy between ourselves and them. Both Wedgwood the Restaurant and Bodegas Altanza are independent and family owned; passionate about flavours and continually striving to bring enjoyment to others.

Embracing the heritage of Rioja, Bodegas Altanza strives to blend tradition and modernity, producing some superb fruit driven wines. We tasted this wine and thought it was superb, so it seemed only natural that we should try to purchase a barrel and bottle it especially for our customers. After much talk and planning it happened and we trust you will enjoy this wine as much as we do.

Now on to our eight barrell, the 2011 vintage is deep purple in colour, a well developed nose with aromas of cinnamon, cloves, lavender, wild cherries and blackberries. A good citrus acidity and a medium palate with notes of liquorice and dark chocolate. Firm tannins and a lingering finish with a fine hint of minerals mixed with fruit.

We hope you enjoy it as much as we do.
